Hitachi Decides to Conduct Public Tender Offer for Shares of Yungtay, Elevator Company Based in Taiwan

Accelerating Global Expansion of Elevators, Escalators and Related Services through Strengthening Business Base

Tokyo, October 26, 2018 --- Hitachi, Ltd. (TSE: 6501, “Hitachi”) today announced that it decided to conduct a public tender offer to acquire all issued shares of Yungtay Engineering Co., Ltd. (TWSE: 1507, “Yungtay”), an elevator and escalator company in Taiwan, and submitted a binding letter to Yungtay with the intent to acquire each share at 60.0 TWD. Additionally, Hitachi has signed a contract with Chou-Li Hsu, Honorary Chairman and founding family of Yungtay, that he will tender his 4.3% of shares in Yungtay, in the case of a public tender offer by Hitachi.

Hitachi owns, together with its wholly owned subsidiary Hitachi Building Systems Co., Ltd., 11.7% of Yungtay’s shares, and intends to acquire 100% ownership of Yungtay through this public tender offer. With the acquisition, Hitachi aims to enhance the elevator and escalator business in the People’s Republic of China (“China”) and Asia by increasing the competitiveness of its products, and accelerate the global expansion of its product and service businesses.

The public tender offer process is planned to be conducted in 2019 following the approval of related government authorities.

Hitachi has aimed to become an “Innovation Partner for the IoT Era” with its 2018 Mid-term Management Plan that started in FY2016, and is deploying its Social Innovation Business using digital technologies to resolve issues faced by society and customers. With the Building Systems Business, Hitachi has been operating its business mainly in China and other Asian countries, with the basic strategy to provide services utilizing data from elevators and other building equipment globally.

Yungtay was founded in 1966 and is the largest company in the elevator and escalator business in Taiwan region. It has also operated in Mainland China as one of the major suppliers of elevators and escalators, mainly for residential buildings. The company has been a business partner of Hitachi for over 50 years, with Hitachi’s capital participation in 1968.

The global elevator and escalator market expects a yearly growth of over 2%, propelled by growing demand in Asia. Meanwhile, the Chinese market, which holds more than half of the global demand for new installations, has seen increased competition. This requires businesses to improve competitiveness of its products as well as advance and make efficient its maintenance services, utilizing digital technology such as IoT.

Hitachi has decided to conduct a public tender offer of Yungtay to enrich its product lineup and expand its new installation business with improved cost competitiveness in China and Asia, and improve its profitability through increasing the number of maintenance units. Hitachi will accelerate the global expansion of its business through realizing improved competitiveness of its products and advanced maintenance service by combining the Yungtay's cost competitiveness with Hitachi's advanced technology such as IoT.

Hitachi is receiving advice regarding this offer from Credit Suisse Securities (as financial advisor), Lee and Li Attorneys-at-Law (for legal matters) and KPMG FAS (for accounting and tax matters).

5. Once the conditions to the Tender Offer are met and the Offeror publicly announces the same, unless there are circumstances as described in Paragraph 6, Article 19 of the Regulations Governing Public Tender Offers for Securities of Public Companies, the Offerees shall not withdraw their offers to sell.

III. Type and Source of the Purchase Price for the Tender Offer

1. Purchase Price in Cash: The Purchase Price is 60 TWD per share.

- (1) Offeror

Description of the Breakdown of Self-Owned Fund:

The total amount of the funds required for the cash payment of the Purchase Price is 21,657,867,660 TWD. The required funds will be paid through the self-owned fund of the Offeror. Hitachi considers that, after the launch of the Tender Offer, SPC plans to borrow a certain amount of fund either from Hitachi or a reputable bank in Taiwan.

If the Offeror is a company and pays the Purchase Price by its self-owned funds, the analysis of the financial reports of the two preceding years prior to the announcement of this Tender Offer.

Item		FY2016	FY2017	Q1 FY2018
Solvency	Current Ratio	134.4%	135.7%	135.4%
	Quick Ratio	86.0%	94.1%	90.0%
Profitability	ROA	3.0%	5.0%	1.4%
	ROE	8.1%	11.6%	3.3%
	Return on paid-in capit EBIT	45.6%	62.2%	17.4%
	EBITDA	85.5%	97.4%	26.1%
	Net profit margin	3.7%	5.2%	6.3%
	EPS (Yen)	47.88	75.12	21.78
